

AMATEUR RADIO SPECIAL EVENT STATION N3B IN COMMEMORATION OF ANNIVERSARY OF THE FIRST TRANSATLANTIC TELEGRAPH MESSAGE BETWEEN HEADS OF STATE.

During his time in office, President James Buchanan used the Bedford Springs Resort as his "Summer White House." On August 16th, 1858, Buchanan made International history when he received and sent the first Transatlantic telegraph message between heads of state. Queen Victoria sent greetings from Buckingham Palace and Buchanan responded from the Bedford Pennsylvania resort.

THIS CERTIFICATE CONFIRMS THAT ON 2016-08-14 14:36:00 AMATEUR RADIO STATION

KO1I

DID HAVE A TWO WAY QSO WITH SPECIAL EVENT AMATEUR RADIO STATION N3B ON 20M SSB. SPECIAL EVENT STATION N3B WAS OPERATED IN BEDFORD COUNTY, PA BY THE BEDFORD COUNTY AMATEUR RADIO SOCIETY (www.bcars.org).

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading 'Kenneth Burtnett'.

Kenneth Burtnett, WB3JEK
PRESIDENT, BCARS

